500 BOY SCOUTS IN LOCAL COUNCIL

Annual Meeting of Organization
Held in Board Room of District Building.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED:
TO RAISE FUND OF $3,500

Scoutmasters Organize Club to Obtain Closer Co-operation—To Hold Camp Next Summer.

The roll of the local council of the Boy Scouts of America has now reached the 500 mark, with twenty-five scout masters employed, according to the reports made yesterday afternoon at annual meeting of the Scouts in the board room of the District Building. Officers were elected and the records and experience of the boys were discussed. Arthur C. Moss was elected president.

It was decided at the meeting that $3,500 should be raised this year for salaries, office expenses, and the camp season, and the plans for the inaugural parade were discussed. The boys are not only to march, but are to act as guides for the visitors.

The following officers were elected: President, Arthur C. Moss; vice president, Cuno H. Rudolph; Henry P. Blair, Colin H. Livingston; treasurer, Paul Dulaney; scout commissioner, Edgar S. Martin; assistant scout commissioner, Frank C. Wood.

Executive committee: Chairman, Arthur C. Moss; members, Albert M. Chesley, William M. Davidson, Paul Dulaney, Stephen E. Kramer, G. A. Love, Arthur C. Moss, William T. Russell, James E. West, Henry P. Blair, Philander P. Claxton, William H. DeLucy, Harry M. Kaufman, Colin H. Livingston, Edgar S. Martin, Cuno H. Rudolph, Rabbi Louis Stern.

Finance committee: Paul Dulaney, William H. DeLucy, Stephen E. Kramer, Harry M. Kaufman, Colin H. Livingston, Rabbi Louis Stern.

Scoutmasters' Club is now being organized by the scoutmasters of the District, the purpose of which will be to secure closer co-operation and leadership for the troops of the city.

A more careful selection of scoutmasters is proposed during the coming year, requiring every organization to provide the scoutmaster before the troop is organized, with a local committee of from three to five to assist the scoutmaster in his district.

Attention was called to the work done during the last week by Boy Scouts going from school to school demonstrating first aid to the injured in the case of burning buildings.

It was decided that camp should be maintained next year. The valuable assistance given the movement by its president, Arthur C. Moss, was mentioned, and the fact that he spends a part of one day each week in the office was commended by the meeting.

Mention was also made of assistance given by Colin H. Livingston, president of the National Council Boy Scouts of America, and Paul Dulaney in obtaining a camp site during the last year and offering another one for next year at Colonial Beach.

PASTOR OFFERS $1,000.

Mr. Russell Will Pay Person Proving Author of Alleged Oath.

One thousand dollars is offered by Mr. William T. Russell, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, to the person who will establish the authenticity of the oath recently circulated as a part of the Catholic ritual by anti-Catholics, and who will prove that these oaths are taken by the officers of the church.

This offer was made by Mr. Russell last night from the pulpit of the church after reading one of the questions deposited in "the question box," which will be open until after the service Thursday night for those who wish to propound questions on religion.

The particular question that drew from the minister the $1,000 offer, was: "Why have Catholics never denied the oaths said to be taken by their ministers as a part of their church obligation?"

Mr. Russell proceeded to a speech of some fifteen minutes to deny the oaths in question, saying the stories bore no semblance of truth.

He said that, in the first place, Catholics had never taken the trouble to deny these stories because they had considered them too ridiculous to be taken seriously. He said that beside the calumnious oaths ascribed to the priests, Jesuits, bishops, and cardinals, there had been circulated in Washington a slanderous oath ascribed to the Knights of Columbus. This Mr. Russell said, he had no doubt had been started because of the demonstration made by the lodge last year.

"I will give anyone who proves that the clergy of the Catholic church takes such oaths," said Mr. Russell, "I,000. And if there are any newspaper men here tonight, I hope they will give this statement all the publicity possible."

Mr. Russell last night delivered the first of a series of lectures he is giving this week. There will be lectures to-night and Wednesday and Thursday nights.

WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER TOO ILL TO APPEAR BEFORE MONEY TRUST PROBERS

That William Rockefeller, brother of John D., is too ill to appear as a witness before the Money Trust committee, is indicated in information received by officials of the committee yesterday.

Mr. Rockefeller was asked some weeks ago if he would accept the service of the committee. He replied in the affirmative.

Later, Mr. Rockefeller's physician and his legal counsel advised Chairman Pujo that Mr. Rockefeller was not physically fit to come to Washington, and that he would not do so unless Chairman Pujo felt that his presence was urgently needed.

Whether Mr. Rockefeller will be summoned is a matter that will come up for discussion at a meeting of the committee to-morrow. If the committee decides not to summon Mr. Rockefeller, it is understood that a subcommittee will be sent to his home to take his testimony.

Foreign Gossip.

The little czarvitch, whose illness is reported in consequence of an accident when thrown by his pony, is indeed a "child of many prayers." Born August 12, 1904, at the darkest moment of the fortunes of Russia, during the war with Japan, his birth was hailed as a good omen and an encouragement to the troops fighting in the far East. He is the fifth child of the Czar andarina, and their only son, and therefore the heir to the throne of Russia. The Russian people, four times disappointed in the expectation of an heir, welcomed the little czarvitch with transports of enthusiasm, and the baby, all unconscious of his great importance, was hailed with a salute of 300 guns. The Czar was overjoyed, and it was reported at the time that he drank his little son's health in champagne and declared that he felt more happy at the birth of an heir than if his soldiers had secured a great victory.

At the years passed the little Grand Duke Alexia Nikolaievitch developed into a bright, healthy little fellow, the darling of his parents and the adored of the people of Russia. He is described as a handsome child, with golden hair and blue eyes, full of mischief. No child, perhaps, was ever more carefully guarded than he, and he is more strictly guarded than any of the other members of the imperial family, although they have been described as living the life of prisoners almost. The fear of nihilist attacks ever was in the minds of the Czar, and especially of the Empress, and day and night the little czarvitch is watched over by the secret service officers. On several occasions the illness of the heir to the throne has caused his parents considerable alarm.

His mother, the Czarina, was the Princess Alix of Hesse, a niece of the late King Edward, and therefore a cousin of King George of England and also related, of course, to the Kaiser.

There is a remarkable outbreak of feeling on the part of the Russian press against the action of England and France in their relation to the triple entente. Let me put the Russian case in general terms. The Russian asks himself the question as to whether the triple entente is for the equal benefit of the three powers or whether it is for the benefit of England and France, and to the detriment of Russia. The latter view is the one expressed at the present moment. The Novoye Vremya, the government organ, and thoroughly Anglophile, at last has lost patience, and to the detriment of Russia. $5,000,000 ATHLETIC STADIUM IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 18.—A call for a meeting of the New York Stadium Association has been issued by James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, and the president of the board of public recreation. It is the idea of the association to erect a $5,000,000 athletic stadium in Central Park. According to the plans the stadium would be of white marble, and almost the exact duplicate of the famous stadium at Athens, Greece.

At the present time New York has no large athletic field where games of national, international, or even local importance may be held.

A microphone used by a Swiss watch company recently measured parts to the hundredth of a millimeter.

RAYNER GROWING WEAKER.

Physicians Hold Out No Hope to Senator's Family.

Senator Isador Rayner, of Maryland, who is suffering from neuritis at his residence, Eighteenth Street, is growing weaker, according to a statement made by his son, William B. Rayner, last night. His physicians are not holding out hope to his family of his ultimate recovery.

In reports late last night, the Senator was resting comfortably. Throughout the day he had intervals of quiet sleep, and, considering this critical condition, passed a good day, free of the acute suffering of the earlier stages of his malady.

The Senator is fully conscious of his condition, and in his wakeful moments he talked quietly with members of his family, doing much to cheer and console them.

During the past few days, the Senator has been steadily employed in all the branches of his business, and has been making many trips to the city, and has been making many trips to the city, and has been making many trips to the city.

STATIONERS WILL FORM A SECTION
Preliminary Steps Taken to Organize Within Retail Merchants' Association.

At a meeting of the retail stationers of the city last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, preliminary steps were taken looking to a permanent organization as a section of the Retail Merchants' Association. This meeting was called by Charles G. Stott, who is a member of the board of governors, and chairman of the section.

The purpose of the meeting was set forth by W. F. Eilers, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association, that it was deemed desirable to organize within the association sections of each trade to consider the particular needs of that line and to work out such problems as might properly come before it. Some of the stationers present, besides Mr. Stott, were E. C. Conchaver, Victor L. Simon, P. D. Morrison, Joseph Haruch, W. M. Furr, and A. C. Habicht.

The matter of organization was discussed in an informal manner and several applications for membership in the association were filed with the secretary, with the understanding that the organization of the section should proceed. It was the sense of the meeting that the organization was desirable and another meeting will be called in the near future to complete it.

The board of governors of the association will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2 p. m. to take up important matters. It is understood that a number of applications for membership will be acted upon at that time.

R. F. Andrews, chairman of the membership committee, yesterday announced the personnel of that committee as follows: George S. De Noid, Isaac Gans, A. D. Prince, Joseph Jacob, A. O. Hatfield, Charles G. Stott, M. A. Leese, Roe Fuller, Sidney West, Owen Green, E. L. Brice, and Calvert Rosenthal.

The shoe trade section of the association will meet to-night at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.
